Mr. Siegfried Loeper
Director
Curaçao Tourism Development Foundation
Curaçao

Dear Mr. Loeper:

Please accept this letter as acknowledgement of Tromson Monroe's (TMPR) appointment as public relations agency for The Curaçao Tourist Board and as confirmation of the basis on which we shall operate in servicing you.

Public Relations Services

Tromson Monroe Public Relations agrees to perform the following services including marketing assistance in close cooperation with The Curaçao Tourist Board:

- A. Write press releases and/or special articles aimed at the trade and consumer media (newspapers, magazines, radio, television, etc.) in accordance with an action plan mutually agreed upon.
- B. Service press requests for information about Curaçao with the assistance and approval of the Client.
- C. Establish and maintain good relations with the press on behalf of the Client for the purpose of placing or stimulating the writing of stories favorable to the Client and supporting the Client's objectives, subject to Client approval; escorting press visits; etc.
- D. Assist the Client with special promotional events both on island and in the U.S. and key international markets. This is to include consumer promotions and travel trade events.
- E. Submit to the Client monthly reports showing media clippings and summarizing the Agency's public relations activities for the Client.

Fees and Expenses

As compensation for the public relations services provided by the Agency, The Curaçao Tourist Board agrees to pay Tromson Monroe Public Relations an annual fee of $72,000 payable in monthly installments of $6,000 beginning February 1, 1990, due as of the first day of each month.

In addition, the Client authorizes the Agency to expend during the 12 months, additional promotional and out-of-pocket expenses at a maximum of $38,000 for such ordinary expenditures as may be necessary for the carrying out of the Client's public relations program, it being understood that these expenditures shall cover items such as the printing and distribution of press releases, postage, long-distance telephone calls, messenger services, news clipping services, the production of reports, photographs, press kits, press entertainment, necessary staff travel and such other items as may be requested by the Client.

Agency expenditures on behalf of Curaçao will be billed at cost when incurred and shall be supported by supplier invoices or receipts verifying the amounts involved.

A separate budget will be established for special promotions and events, to be authorized by Client prior to execution of the event.

Staff Service

The services of a management supervisor, account supervisor and assistant, as well as computer facilities, secretarial, clerical, and accounting services will be assigned to the account, all under the direction of the agency P.R. Review Board.

Tromson Monroe staff members assigned to work on this account will meet as often as necessary with the representatives of Curaçao to discuss plans, work in progress, and results. In addition, Tromson Monroe will submit written reports describing work performed and including a list of press contacts made, and press releases written.
